Dear Mr. Lofstedt:

On May 21, 2002, Donald Kang sent you by messenger a letter authorizing and instructing you to transfer the files in the above referenced patent applications to our office.

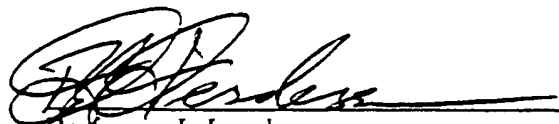

As of June 3, 2002, we had not received the files. Mr. Hoffenberg spoke with you by telephone regarding your delivering the files. You explained that the Memorial Day Holiday held up your transferring the files. You indicated to Mr. Hoffenberg that the files would be sent on June 4, 2002 for overnight delivery to our office for receipt on June 5, 2002.

We did not receive any files from your office on June 5, 2002. If the files were sent, we ask that you have the delivery service track down their whereabouts. If the file were not sent, you should immediately messenger them to our office.

Thank you for your courtesy and cooperation.

Very truly yours,

PARK & SUTTON LLP

Dear Mr. Lofstedt:

As per my voice message to you today, if the files in the above-referenced patent applications have not been sent to us, we would like to arrange for a copy service to come and duplicate the files at your offices tomorrow.

Thank you for your courtesy and cooperation.

Very truly yours,
